MacIntyre Hudson shortlisted in National Firm of Year category at British Accountancy Awards 2011

MacIntyre Hudson LLP, the top 20 accounting and business advisory firm, has been shortlisted in the National Firm of the Year category of the British Accountancy Awards 2011.

Rakesh Shaunak, Chairman of MacIntyre Hudson, commented: "We are delighted to have been shortlisted for this award in such a competitive category. As a firm, MacIntyre Hudson has shown impressive growth and resilience in recent years despite the state of the economy. We have reacted quickly to market opportunities and client demand and as such, have widened the breadth of services we offer and deepened expertise through key hires and mergers.

"As a founder member of MHA (our national association), we have also broadened our national footprint and the services we can offer to clients whilst still retaining our regional flexibility and expertise.

"Being shortlisted for an award such as this gives external recognition for the efforts we have made. We are proud to have become a one-stop shop for owner managed businesses, providing a full suite of core, advisory and outsourced services at a level rarely found in mid-tier firms."

The British Accountancy Awards, which celebrates "outstanding performance and innovation across the sector", will take place on Wednesday 30 November where the winners will be announced.
