New appointments in growing Corporate Recovery team

We are pleased to announce the appointment of Georgina Eason and Adrian Dante as Directors in the MacIntyre Hudson Corporate Recovery Team.

Georgina has worked with Mick Sanders, Corporate Recovery Principal, for eight years and became a licensed insolvency practitioner on 3 November 2009, having qualified in 2005.

Adrian joined MacIntyre Hudson LLP in November having been with Smith and Williamson for a number of years. He qualified as an insolvency practitioner in 2005 and became a licence holder to take appointments in September 2008.

Both Georgina and Adrian are experienced in pre-insolvency advice to directors and stakeholders via solicitors and accountants across all industries. In recent years, Adrian has been involved in asset tracing and civil recovery assignments on behalf of HMRC.

Mick Sanders, Principal, commented:

“I’d like to congratulate Georgina and Adrian on their appointments and welcome them to the team. Their knowledge and expertise is a real asset to MacIntyre Hudson and our clients.”

Georgina is based in the London City office and Adrian is based in our new office in Rochester.
